

Cancer

Samples MUST be taken before treatment

Samples may be taken from the primary lesion at first diagnosis (or from a metastasis if sampling is problematic)
If the first sample is successful (sufficient tumour and DNA available) further samples from reoccurrences may be included

Professor Julian Barwell
Dr Corrina Powell
Helen Harrison